Thanks were given to Brian Watt and Peter Hazzard for their sterling work on the committee over the years, and the Branch wish them well.

Minutes of October Meeting

These were approved by Police Scotland Fife and Peoples Ford Boghall & Bathgate Caledonia

Treasurer's Report.

The Treasurer gave her report which is available from the Secretary on request.

Secretary's Report

There was nothing to report.

Director's Report

We should remind bands that the branch fees are now due.

I was asked if more Grade 3 bands would attend our contests if we had a separate Juvenile contest. The Branch have tried to implement a Juvenile contest where feasible at Branch Contests, but due to costs this is not always possible.

Music Board Report

Nothing to report. Next MB Meeting is 14th January 2023.

Stewards Report

Nothing to report

Education Report

The Pipe Band College last met on Saturday 12th November 2022.

The convener was Paul McAndrew (PMC). He noted that he was convening the meeting as part of ongoing review of PBC by the Chairman, Vice Chairman, PMC and the College Principals.

A question was raised about who would present PBC report at BOD meetings. PMC would however where there was a need for specific specialist knowledge a PBC member would be invited to attend the BOD.

The PBC are currently undergoing External Verification from the SQA which is holding up approx 20 of our members receiving certificates for exams sat in June 2021. Pat Whelan (PW) is working to resolve this asap, but confirmed that he had received written confirmation from the SQA that the RSPBA could continue to offer examinations.

Currently 4 groups, Preston Lodge High School, George Watson's College, Johnstone Pipe Band and Strathallan School have exams booked in between now and Christmas.

There was some discussion about cost/benefit of online vs in-person assessment however since the meeting I have had confirmation that assessments will be face to face if the customer prefers and this has all been budgeted out and is financially viable with no increase in examination fees.

The RSPBA Summer School date is confirmed as the week beginning 24th July 2023 and the theme will be "Wake up, Shake up". The Summer School Principal, John Nevans reported that 14 pupils attended the Summer School 2022 which he was happy with for the first year back face to face but hoped for greater numbers in 2023. There was some discussion around how to attract greater numbers. Our own Branch plus several others sponsor a number of students to attend which helps. I suggested that HQ follow the model of our branch by adding £10 per band nationally, ring-fenced to fund education projects like the Summer School and make it cheaper for people to attend. This was received positively, and other ideas were discussed including separate adult schools, John Nevans working closer with the Geographical reps to perhaps provide more local Summer School events for example. All things requiring further discussion and development

Discussions by all, that education was not always about exams, but should be about contacts, friendships and learning skills to further personal, playing and musical development

Lee has requested information on what the PBC can offer to branches in terms of workshop delivery so he can put this out to our branch bands to see what is of interest to them and hopefully get some scheduled in for our bands.

Summer School

This will be a "Wake Up Shake Up" and held in Washington Street.

14 Students attended last year and John is working towards a Geographical Summer School as some are unable to attend the course in Glasgow.

Trophy Convener's Report

Paul Starr will get in touch with Brian Watt to conduct a handover of the trophies and any relevant information. Paul will also try to find a secure storage facility for the trophies.

AOCB

Paul Starr asked if we could possibly have a full band contest at next year's Indoor, it was said that some bands were not ready to enter a full band but could enter a mini band. The President suggested that we should ask the bands what they would prefer, a full band or mini band. He agreed to contact the relevant Grade 4 and Grade 3 bands.

The Branch Committee agreed that the regular monthly meetings between January and April, and September and October would continue to be held online, with the AGM in November, and the first meeting of the new season immediately following, would be held in-person in Bellsquarry Hall.
